WE ARE THE PEOPLE THAT

LOVE
CULTURE &
ART

We are a non-profit structure founded in 2015 that consists of seven members and our goal is to evoke and keep the cultural spirit and bring Ghanaian and Norwegian cultures together. Ghanaian and Norwegian communities' participation in fun activities is a way to learn and teach from each other about your identity, especially the youth who is there to preserve and protect it.

Our motto is 'Each one teach one'.

ABOUT GHANORFEST

The goal of this festival is to display Ghanaian and Norwegian tradition and culture through music, dance, art, fashion, food and activities. To present contemporary Ghanaian and Norwegian artists of Dancehall, Reggae and Hip-hop and other genres that are inspired by them and derived from them, alongside with renewing and upholding traditional dance and music, and connecting all of those worlds of music. It will present not very well known form of artistic expression, like talking drum, which we hope can inspire youth and artists.
